

The Gary Baker Award

(by the Worshipful Company of Butchers)

Application Information 2024/25

Who can apply?

The Gary Baker Award is open to all Final Year BSc or Final Year FdSc Harper Adams University students studying:

- Agriculture
- Animal Science
- Agri-Food Marketing or
- Food Technology

who are interested in pursuing a career in the meat processing industry or associated sectors (e.g. food animal production, meat technology or meat packaging businesses).

To be eligible to apply for this scholarship you must have spent your industrial placement period in a UK-based red meat production and/or processing and/or relating manufacturing business. Students who have worked on farms in red meat production (beef, pork and lamb/mutton) or in meat processing businesses (abattoirs and/or red meat packing companies or meat products manufacturing etc.) are eligible to apply.

Background

The Gary Baker Award has been established to honour the memory of the late Gary Baker. The endowment through which the Award is made is in the gift of the Baker Family and is administered by The Worshipful Company of Butchers.

Opportunities

The successful scholarship recipient will receive a one-off payment of £1,000. The award will be presented by cheque at the Worshipful Company of Butchers' Dinner in January.

Payment is conditional on the scholar remaining registered as a full-time student at Harper Adams University. They must pass all modules of study during the continuation of the scholarship and submit a letter of thanks to the sponsor to the Development Trust prior to the receipt of payment.

This is a competitive award which will be evaluated on the merit of the submitted application, academic achievements to date and interview. The Development Trust embraces diversity and promotes equality of opportunity and access to higher education. The Trust has been successful in supporting a wide range of students. It strongly encourages applications from students of all backgrounds. Where there are two
